Asking for Seed Wheat

In the northwest corner of Kansas a series of poor crops terminating this year in a complete failure has put the farmers in a bad hole. In July a number of letters asking for seed wheat were written to the Rock Island. These letters were referred to Mr. Cottrell, agricultural commissioner of the Rock Island lines, who answered them by saying in substance: "If you have been raising wheat for twenty years, and at the end of that period find yourselves unable to buy seed, I would advise you to try some other crops."

Then the farmers began to ask the county commissioners to buy seed wheat, and it was found that there was no law to permit such an action by the county commissioners. The rains of the past two weeks have put that section of the state in excellent shape for seeding and the agitation for seed wheat is increasing.

Last week a meeting of Cheyenne, Rawlins, Decatur, Sherman, Thomas, Graham, Logan, Trego, representatives was held at Colby, and resolutions passed setting forth conditions, and asking Governor Stubbs to call a special session of the legislature to pass a law to enable the county commissioners to provide a reasonable amount of seed in counties where it is needed.

At Garden City a club of merchants has been formed to buy seed wheat and furnish it to farmers on shares. A similar plan is being agitated for Liberal and a number of the merchants have made arrangements to furnish seed wheat to one or more farmers. If there is need of more seed than we can furnish, it would be well for the state representatives from the southwest counties to join those of the northwest in asking for a special session. In order to do much good here the seed should be in the farmers' hands by September first. If we can be shown that more seed is needed than can be furnished here, the Democrat is willing to work for the special session. However, we believe now that we can provide the seed without asking the county or state.

There is no investment on earth so remunerative as a small portion of old Mother Earth herself. We have some small portions of Earth at small prices that will yield big incomes. We can save you money. C us B 4 U By. Ellsaesser & Henry.
